Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Gary and the latter's sister, Miss Hardin, who had been visiting Mr. Gary's relatives in the city and county for several days, returned home Wednesday.

Lawn Party June 12.

Next Thursday evening, June 12th, the ladies of Fairview will give a lawn party at the residence of the Misses Darnall, and we are ready to predict now that it will be one of the most successful and pleasant occasions of the kind that has ever occurred in that section. Besides the splendid supper that will be served on the ground, and the numerous ice cream, lemonade and fruit stands that will furnish refreshments, there will be several new and novel features that cannot fail to add greatly to the pleasure and interest of the occasion. A post-office, art gallery, fish pond and gypsy tent will be located in the large and beautiful yard, and an open air concert will be given during the evening, and the best talent both at home and from abroad will take part. The ladies have decided to divide the proceeds of the entertainment equally between the Cumberland Presbyterian churches of Hopkinsville and Goshen, and as both of these churches are at present greatly in need, it is a worthy object and should be liberally patronized.
Let all who possibly can attend. A pleasant evening is positively guaranteed to all present. The roads will no doubt be in fine condition, and as it is a nice drive, we hope our city will be largely represented at the entertainment. C. E. K.

Mrs. Ducker's flowers were stolen by some aesthetic thief last Monday night.

The tobacco seasons this week gave the farmers an opportunity to get most of their crops set out.

Miss Mattie Buckner's school, near Ringgold, Tenn., will be out to-day and an exhibition will be given by the children to-night.

W. W. Bills, who shot at the negro McIntyre, was released on all the charges except carrying concealed deadly weapons. He was given ten days in jail and fined $25 on that.

An alarm of fire was given Wednesday evening about dusk. It proved to be a chimney burning out somewhere on North Main street and the excitement soon subsided.

Rev. F. L. Braun, resigned his charge at Buehler's German Lutheran church last Sunday, but will continue his mission work at Hopkinsville.

E. A. Pike has just received one of the largest stocks of fine wines, liquors, mineral water, tobacco and cigars in the city. You are cordially invited to come and partake of them.

Mr. Charles Fahrni, a Swiss, of Youngstown, O., arrived here Monday night and through Rev. F. L.
Braun, found employment at Mr.
Geo. Green's, on the Nashville road.
Mr. Fahrni speaks well both German and French.

The work in the livery stable of J.
M. Hipkins, under the supervision of Messrs. Hurt & McClure, is being rapidly pushed forward and in a few days more Mr. Hipkins will have one of the best livery stables in Hopkinsville.

Yate Clark, who shot at R. H.
Markham, last Saturday, was tried by a jury Wednesday and given seven months in jail and fined $300. In the event the fine is not paid he will have to remain in jail until it is paid off at $2.00 a day.

Old Charles Green, a negro thief who has grown old and wrinkled at stealing whatever he could lay his hands on, has been temporarily lated in his dishonest career. One night last week he robbed E. A.
Pike's chicken-coop, taking nine chickens. He was tried before Judge Winfree Wednesday and the jury found him guilty and gave him the extreme penalty of the law—twelve months in the county work house.

Mr. H. C. Herndon in an altercation with a negro named Squire Bell, shot at him last Tuesday week, at his house, near Longview, but did not hit him. The negro continued to work for Mr. Herndon several days afterwards and then got out a warrant for his arrest and went to Tennessee.
Mr. Herndon came to town yesterday and surrendered himself. The matter is regarded as of but little consequence and it is doubtful if the negro will appear against him.

Read the notice of Mr. T. W. Buckner in another column. Mr. Buckner has come to Henderson with the strongest and most flattering endorsements from his former neighbors and fellow citizens, at Hopkinsville, who have known him all his life. He has come here to make our city his future home, and offers his services to the public in the Insurance and Real Estate business. He has energy, judgment, taste, skill, experience, prudence, honor and vim, and these are traits and characteristics that not only insure prompt attention to business, but are certain to bring success.—Reporter.

The Dawson debate, between Eld Sweeney, of the Reformed church and Rev. Abbott of the Universalist persuasion, was the event of the last week. It continued for five days and was very interesting. The partisans of each speaker claimed the victory but it is the outside opinion that neither of the disputants gained any decided advantage over the other.
This week the races are the attraction at Dawson and there is a big crowd there. The Rippings, with commendable enterprise, is publishing a bright little daily. A theatrical company has been engaged for the season and Dawson will be exceedingly lively all the summer.

Star of Empire.

We have been favored with a copy of "Star of Empire; or Gray and Blue," Mr. S. C. Mercer's new drama which is just from the press of Jno.
P. Morton & Co., Louisville. The plot represents a party of children preparing to hold a Flower Festival for the benefit of Disabled Confederates. During the preparation ex-Confederate and ex-Union soldiers recognize in the Sisters of Charity, who attend the children, their old nurses in the army hospital. An interlude strikes at the popular craze of "futures" and the very recent collapse of Grant & Ward is cited. The last act represents the creation of a floral Star of Empire, by the co-operation of States, represented by thirty-eight girls, and closes with a tableau of Immigrants from all nations. The drama is written in Mr. Mercer's happiest vein and contains some poetic gems of rare sweetness and merit. It is a pamphlet of 60 pages and is for sale at the news stands for 30 cents.

KILLING AT LONGVIEW.

Ed. Steger Kills Jesse Bullock, col.

Edward E. Steger shot and fatally wounded a negro named Jesse Hart, alias "Bullock," near Longview last Tuesday morning. The wife of Bullock, a woman who goes by the name of Nellie Johnson, had been employed as a cook by Steger but some difference had arisen and she had been discharged. Bullock came to make a settlement for his wife and the settlement showed Steger indebted to her for $1.50. Not having the change he went to his mother's, near by, to get it and his mother informed him that she had sold the Johnson woman a cloak which she had not paid for and asked him to hold back the $1.50 for her. Steger returned and declined to pay the money to Bullock, giving the above reason. This incensed him very much and he left and bad blood existed for some days.

It is said Bullock had openly made threats and had been seen buying cartridges at the neighborhood store.
Some of Steger's friends had warned him to keep his eyes open and his powder dry as Bullock was a bad and desperate negro. On Tuesday morning Steger started from his house to set out tobacco. At his gate he met Bullock who began to curse and denounce him and hot words passed and the quarrel continued until Bullock drew a Bull-dog pistol and taking aim at Steger pulled the trigger, but the weapon snapped. Steger then drew his pistol and shot Bullock as he was in the act of shooting again. The ball struck him in the right side inflicting a mortal wound. Bullock then fired at Steger, the ball passing between his arm and body, but missing him.
Bullock lived until Wednesday night, and we understand, stated before he died that he tried to kill Steger and that he would have done so if his pistol had not snapped the first time.

Steger came to town yesterday and gave himself up. He is a young man about 23 years old, only recently married, and belongs to one of the best families in the county. He has always been a quiet, peaceably disposed young man and from the evidence there is no doubt that he killed Bullock to save his own life. The shooting was done on his own premises and only after an attempt had been made to shoot him. He has employed Messrs. Henry & Payne to conduct his case and the examining trial will be held before the Longview magistrates to-morrow. The negro was a young man, and his reputation was any thing but good. He was "a quarrelsome, impudent and mean negro," to use the language of a neighbor who knew him well. He sought to kill and was himself slain.

KELLY'S STATION.

EDITOR SOUTH KENTUCKIAN: Business flourishing, but nothing to write worth the attention of your readers.

We heard of several who are done setting tobacco.

Mr. T. W. Gooch, one of our most prominent citizens, has been called to the Methodist conference which is now in session at Elm Wood.

Esq. James Boyd is now a happy man, having delivered on the Hopkinsville market the last of near one hundred Hlds., of Christian county tobacco. Mr. Boyd will soon erect a valuable tobacco factory near the heart of our town.

Miss Eliza Gooch, after spending quite a number of days with relatives of this place, has returned to her home.

Rev. A. C. Dorris, will preach at this place on the 15 inst., at 11 o'clock A. M.

Rev. J. W. Spurlin, will preach the funeral of Mrs. Wm. East, on next Sabbath at West Mt. Zion.

J. F. R.

HOW HE EARNED HIS PROMOTION.

The chief clerk of a French merchant received an invitation to a masked ball at his employer's, and was the envy of his comrades. It was considered a mark of very great favor, and was looked upon as a sign that he would soon be offered a place in the firm itself. Resolved to do all he could to make the occasion a success, he spent a good deal of time and considerable money in devising and making his masquerade costume, which, after long deliberation, he resolved should be that of a monkey. Then he spent a week learning a number of tricks —grinning, clambering on the chimney, springing over the bed, balancing himself on the back of a chair. The evening came. He rang the bell, hung his overcoat into the servant's arms, and with a grin and chatter, turned a somersault under the chandelier. The gentlemen stood stupefied, the ladies screamed.
His mask prevented him from seeing much, but the noise encouraged him to bound over a sofa and throw down a cabinet of old china. At this moment a hand seized him, tore off his mask, and the voice of his employer asked him what he meant by his infernal conduct.
Before he could explain he was hustled out of the house, learning by one glimpse that the rest of the company were in evening dress. The next day he was sent for, and entered the office with grooming knees. "I had the pleasure of a visit from you last evening," said the gentleman. "Yes, sir—that is—I—" "No excuses," said the other, "no excuses—I have raised your salary. I noticed you were overlooked for promotion last year. Good morning; shut the door after you." "Well, I'll be—" said the clerk, going out. His employer had made an early investigation into the matter, and found that the other clerks had "put up a job" on the young man by sending him a bogus invitation. His employer made things even by promoting him over their heads.

DECORATIONS OF NEW YORK HOUSES.

In some of the Fifth avenue palaces the decorative work represents, not only thousands of dollars, but the combined taste, skill and labor of artists and mechanics. In quaint combinations of colors, richness of drapery, wealth of carving and the beauty of the painted decorations, some of the apartments of these private residences are splendid beyond description. Many of the rooms are so adorned as to illustrate a poem, depict a celebrated battle or give form and expression to some familiar legend or fable. On the frescoed wall of a broad hall, for instance, the lover of Shakespeare may see his favorite plays represented, scene by scene, with all the vigor and feeling of a master mind. In the carved ceiling of an adjoining room he may look upon the portrayal, in almost living figures, of some deed of knightly heroes, renowned in medieval history, while the sunlight trickling through the ornamented window of still another apartment brings into relief some exquisite pastoral scene, tender in its expressiveness and rich in its natural colors. All of these beautiful things are striking evidences of the progress that has been made in the art of interior decoration within the past few years.
They have supplanted a style of decoration which was without art, without symmetry and often without attractiveness.—

AMERICANS ABROAD.

Well-bred Americans, says an English paper, are precisely like all other well-bred people, and, of course, have few peculiarities, except that of being not only very rich, but having a vast quantity of available ready money to spend on any passing fancy. The American lady is entirely different from her English sister. She is generally very vivacious as well as accomplished, and is also well dressed as well as pretty.
Very fastidious carpers might object that she is sometimes over self-conscious, and perpetually conveys the idea that she is under arms; but she is charming, nevertheless, and wears the prettiest shoes in the world.
